What is daytrading?
Demo Instructor answered:
I don't recommend daytrading. Daytrading becomes an addiction and it throws away people artificially, create bubbles and inflate stock prices beyond their real valuation. investment fundamentals. In daytrading.

There has never been a better time to invest in the stock market. However, you can't just put your money in any stock, you have to do your homework in order to come out a winner.

Here are a few tips:
1) Don't follow anybody's "hot" stock tip.
You have to conduct research and really believe in the company that you are investing in. Essentially, by buying stock you are taking an ownership stake in the company.
